Welcome to Star powered astrology for changemakers. I have Leslie Tagorda. Your guide, a Hawaii born Filipino Jewish astrologer who loves navigating visionaries like you the spiritual journey of your work so that you can be inspired to lead by your chart and become the luminary leader you are born to welcome welcome luminaries to another podcast interview. And I am so excited to bring Christina Jenkins and April Malala, because we're going to be talking all about the moon. Hi, April. Hi, Christina. Lovely. So I'm really excited to bring them here for a number of reasons like not only are they just such a beautiful, wonderful people, I've got a chance to meet Christina in person and I bought I've had a chance to work with both of these amazing souls. Christina has a beautiful business called embody your essence brand. And April is going through this wonderful transition. But always at her heart, working with children and bringing children and mothers to this like beautiful, joyful, centered place. So welcome, welcome.

C Christina Jenkins 01:09

Thank you so much, Leslie. It's so great to be here.

L Leslie Tagorda 01:13

So this dynamic duo has recently put together another beautiful creation, they have come together. And we really need those because, you know, I love working with the moon, I'm sure that you all love working with the moon. And I didn't do any Moon things this year that I'm like offering out so like, this is like so perfect. I love that you brought this into the world. Can you tell us this new creation that you have to share with everyone? Yeah,

A April Millar 01:41

yes. Okay. So what what it is really, truly is. I mean, everybody loves to have a ritual. Not everybody, if you love working with the moon typically have a ritual around like the new moon and the full moon. And so we kind of decided to bring together a workbook, so that you can either add it to your ritual, or it can become your ritual. And we all of them are accustomed to what is happening in the sky at that moment. And it actually was the brainchild of Christina. And I just was like, amazed that she was making these workbooks for herself. I was like no, no, no, everyone, i Everyone needs these workbooks. These are amazing.

C Christina Jenkins 02:26

So yeah, so it was just something that I've always loved the moon. And so I would while I was learning more and more about astrology, like I would literally go through Instagram and just find like questions or information. And then I would just write it up and then on my on the new moon or the full moon I would fill out these these questions. And then as I learned more and more about astrology, and I just started like putting my own stuff together. And then last spring after April when I met I was like, I will start to open up a little bit and I just said Hey, Kim, this this Full Moon it was a full moon of Scorpio last year. The Eclipse and anyway. Yeah, we've been hanging out ever since on the new and full moons. So great.

Oh gosh, I love this. So the beautiful creation that both April and Christina have created this called work with the moon. And so if you head on over to their social media or to the website work with the moon.com they will deliver these like powerful worksheets to you twice a month that has rituals for both the new moon and the full moon and of course I know if you're listening to us in this podcast you too love working with the moon. But you know what I love so much about this is how you really made it your own and integrated all of the both of your secret sauces, so to say. So you know, April with kind of like that, that herbal background that you've had from like that you've gained the blessings of your family, all that talent that you come from the herb healing and then just like the mysticism and the Tarot and just like the beautiful crystal work with that you add to it Christina the these guidebooks are amazing because you offer a card spread you offer different healing crystals and herbs to work with. How did you guys come up with all of this? This is so much information.

C Christina Jenkins 04:26

Um, so like I said, it's just something Oh, it's just a work in progress that I just put together and it was it was for myself it was really just for myself and and I've been working with crystals and flower essences and essential oils since the mid 90s. Actually, I started in the early 90s And it was so crazy back then to try and explain what an essential oil was. I mean, I don't know if you guys remember it was like nobody understood it. Nobody got it now it's everywhere, but and so just including that as I get into hustles so easy. So for me, this was a creative space in a different way, and a way that I could just get present.

A April Millar 05:11

And I, I really love, like the manifesting aspects of working with the moon as far as, as far as like, you know, planting the seeds of intention and wishes at the New Moon and then the like, you know, planting the seeds of intention and wishes at the new moon and then the releasing at the full moon. And, like different practices and fun like activities that you can do. And so we've implemented all of that. And honestly, it has become like a, an intuitive practice for us on to create them. So we really tap into what needs to, to be in each workbook, and we kind of just co create with, it feels like the divine and, and each one is completely different. And so it's it's a really it's like, beautiful combination of it all.

Yes, I love everything that you pour into it. And I want to share a little bit more about the book. But before we get into like all of like the details of just like the just the goodies that exist in this valuable resource. How did you guys come together and decide to create this thing?

C Christina Jenkins 06:17

I love this story so much people ask us all the time. How did you guys even meet? And the truth is we live in the same city.

A April Millar 06:24

We had no idea though. None.

C Christina Jenkins 06:26

So we were in your community we're in.

A April Millar 06:29

I know we it's like you're the fairy godmother or something.

C Christina Jenkins 06:34

We're like the fruits of the labors in some way. Some of your fruits. But yeah, so we just hit it off in what I don't remember what the program was it started out. Okay. So yeah, start powered. And, you know, April used to be a doula. I mean, she still is a doula, but she was released in that business. And I have children who in the next five to 10 years, daughters are going to be giving birth. And she was explaining this birth experience that I would have loved to have had, I was like, I need to meet this woman, because I want to be able to offer this to my daughters if they if that's what they choose. So we decided that we would just have like a virtual coffee date, which was so so like in class and your class will messaging each other privately and she's like Hey do so so like, in class, and your class will messaging each other privately and she's like, Hey, do you want to just meet together virtually? And I was like, Yeah, that sounds great. She's like kale, I'll friend you on Facebook. And I'm like, sounds good. And then about three minutes later, I get another message in the class and she's like, do you live in Nampa Idaho, and I was like, yeah, she was I do too. So then we met up for real coffee person and spent like two hours just chatting and it we honestly it was, it was we left there saying like, it is amazing to be able to talk to someone without having to explain the city like Oh my, my Moon in Virgo or like oh, this and this and talk astrology talk spirituality, talk, mysticism, talk it all the all those languages and be able to like, share with each other without being like, okay, so. So what I mean by this and explaining, and it just felt like so at home with each other. So it really does feel like a sacred contract type of friendships. So, yes, like that soul sisters kind of thing. And I just I love that you guys met through me in a program. And, you know, if you're watching on video, when I opened up the zoom to record this, I was so delighted to see both April and Christina in the same zoom window, meaning that they were together to record this. And it's so great. I mean, like, twice a week at least we're hanging out in person. Yeah.

A April Millar 08:47

Well, it kind of developed to so we just like became friends. And then I was just impressed with, with Christina and everything that she was kind of putting out into the world. And so I offered to help I, I have a Virgo moon. Yes, I actually Virgo is my signature. And so I was like, Hey, do you need some like back end help? Like, can I help you organize things? And she was like, Well, yeah, so we started to kind of work together a little bit. But not, but it wasn't like it ended up just becoming like more of like, hey, what can we work together on and create together? And that's kind of where this this work with the moon business came about? Because we just knew that we wanted to work together. So

L Leslie Tagorda 09:34

Oh, my goodness, I just I, you know, just thinking, my ultimate goal in bringing astrology into like an everyday life or like personal development, leadership development. You said earlier that you too are the fruit and I just what I see is like just all of my dreams coming true because you're taking all of this Astro work and you're putting your own flavor on it your own experience because I mean, so Christina, you do this whole other like you have your your branding just like I do. You also are a musician just like I, we got to meet in San Francisco a few months ago that was epic. But you also do this incredible, intuitive other kind of reading called toe reading, which just like blows my mind. Can you tell us a little bit about that? Oh, yes, I would love to. So yeah, so I do toe reading. And like, she's being modest. She's like the mother of October. Yes,

C Christina Jenkins 10:00

Christina Jenkins 10:29

April Millar 10:41

he is re emerging that, that. Yeah.

Christina Jenkins 10:47

And it was kind of just one of those things that came just a blessing from the universe that just came to me like how April did just out of the blue, unexpected. Just as part of my own healing journey, I read this tiny, little classified ad, remember those like in the early 2000s Little classify that about a toe reading workshop. And I was like, Oh, I've never heard that, that I'm gonna go. So it's like, not in the greatest place in town. It's in the basement. And it was three hours that changed my life I have, I don't even remember who taught I've looked for them. But it is a skill. So I read toes. So you know, so I like to think about kind of like how people will read irises for health, or a lot of people compare it to like palmistry. But it's not divinatory. It's more. So a lot of reflexologist. This is really good for reflexologist. But it's really just identifying where are you right now on your journey shows you where you've been and generational stuff, and where you are now. And so the way that the toes lay the way that the toenails are the way that they're pointing the way that they're connecting with the earth. Like it tells you so much information. And it's saved my daughter's life. And I talked about that in the workshop. And then I've just seen it over and over and over, just change people's lives. Toe reading. So I've launched the toe reading Academy, and I've really moved much more into this very spiritual, mystical side of things which I, as a side of me, I would lead out with very trusted clients. But, you know, I was an educator and I was in a business person, and you know, I was gonna do it. But this is what's changing lives, is the spirituality piece until reading is a huge part of it.

Leslie Tagorda 12:37

So amazing. I just, it just feels just to bring all of these things. So I'm curious, do you bring any of that kind of your toes skills and practices into any of the moon, the moon books that you're putting together.

Christina Jenkins 12:53

So I'm not necessarily the toe reading in that. But I have developed a new modality called Astro Tarot reading, and I sleep so reading while I look at their natal charts. And it's, as always, like, you can't make this stuff up. amazing to see as far as like speaking two languages to confirm things, or using the tools to identify where you are on the map of your life. And it's just incredibly empowering. So the toe reading. Yeah, I haven't figured out a way to bring it into these yet. But I'm sure I will. It's so evolving. And so fun. And I'm learning so much as I develop it, especially preparing to take it out into a certification program.

L Leslie Tagorda 13:40

That is just amazing. I love how both of you are just using the, you know, our traditional language of astrology and really making it your own. And we all have that capacity to do that. So that's amazing. So when I look at you know, Christina, you have your cancer, your zero degree cancer sun, and your zero degree Scorpio moon and then also your Taurus rising. And then April, you have your beautiful Taurus sun, you have your beautiful Virgo moon and Leo rising. And so I have a chart a composite chart where a comparison chart where I've laid each of your energies on top of each other to just see where they align and where they intersect. And I know the two of you have crafted a business chart based on your domain. So can we talk a little bit about that?

A April Millar 14:41

That would be amazing. That would be fascinating, actually.

L Leslie Tagorda 14:45

Yes. And so what is what is the most fascinating is that so like both April and Christina like they're both like partners in this collaboration. But when I'm thinking about like, who is the initiator? We always use that person that kind of soul as the primary soul because they're offering and extending the invitation like hey, April come work with me although it sounds like April, you kind of maybe lovingly invited yourself like, hey, I can help you.

C Christina Jenkins 15:15

I'm so grateful that she did

L Leslie Tagorda 15:20

because Dina's like, Oh, I'm creating these workbooks and on the moon full moons and release, but I want to, and you're like, let's bring this into the world. So I'm using Christina's chart as like the base chart. I think so, yeah, the dial sets at zero at that Taurus rising, right. So we'll do that Taurus rising. And because April, you have your Taurus sun, in that 12th house, one of the ways that we can look at that how you help, Christina is like helping her with all of her unfinished business. Right, like really grounding, all of that in to complete.

C Christina Jenkins 16:00

I always know I'm going to accomplish more if April comes over. Yes. And once you accomplish more, I mean, like those little grounding tasks, right? Yeah, tying up loose ends, we all need, we all need that kind of support, right? I like, there's no shame tying up loose ends, we all need, we all need that kind of support, right? Like, there's no shame in not being able to do everything because we're not designed to do everything. And then the other beautiful part that I love is where, where your moon is, Christina in the sixth house, zero degrees of Scorpio, and April's Pluto is right on top of that, right around six degrees of Scorpio. And so there's massive emotional transformation that happens, but in the sixth house as a practice, and I heard you when you're talking about the moon rituals, and we talk about those Moon rituals to us like, these are our practice. This is something that keeps us in a routine that keeps us not in like a place of like rigidity, where we have to do them. But it just like gives us like those, those markers of like you're on the right track. You're on the right track. You're on the right track. Yes, yeah. And that's what we really want to people to feel when they do this is to both have that confirmation, that affirmation. I'm on the right track. And also Oh, look, here's a way that we can shine the light on some things that we can do to uplevel. And then the presence that just knowing that you got a date with yourself twice a month.

C Christina Jenkins 17:11

A April Millar 17:34

Yes. And I'm saying just what Christina said before is like, I think sometimes we time just goes. And then it's like, wait, what? And so I love I love working with the moon. Because twice a month, it's just like you slow down, you stop, you assess your life. And you can like, look around, see what's going on. See what you want to change, see what you want to alter. And it's like that point of, of I mean, you hear all the time, like life is made in one degree turns or something like that little shifts. Yeah, one degree shifts. And I feel like working with the moon, is your point of navigation is the point where you get to choose where you're shifting.

L Leslie Tagorda 18:21

Yes, I mean, you're talking to the choir here because I love I love me some Moon rituals. And we can use them just in all of the different aspects of our life and our work. Now when I look at the comparison chart between patina and April, also, there's another like beautiful sense of meetup. There's a lot of different meetups, but the ones that are like really most significant to me are where Christina has jupiter in the ninth house and aligns with how now. April's Neptune Mars also it like lays on top of that Jupiter. And so the jupiter in the ninth house like Jupiter loves being in the ninth house that it's home. Right. And that's what makes you like such a wonderful astrologer and philosopher. And you know, like, there's kind of like that priestess energy that is about the ninth house. And then now we have the energetic devotion and commitment that April helps with supporting that expansion.

C Christina Jenkins 19:25

I got spirit chills, when you said that. Thank you.

L Leslie Tagorda 19:28

That's still the way that you work together. Right is like you guys can bring projects to completion that are both beautiful and useful and embodied. You're creating these impactful emotional, spiritual daily practices for people and you're allowing that purpose and devotion to expand. And so the two of you working together just create this brilliance.

A April Millar 19:55

Ooh, that's, that's amazing. Thank you. You're bombing and confirming because that's what the energy feels like, between us also, is can because truthfully, I would have happily just like, kept, kept these small, little little notebook or, like, you know, I just started graphically designing them when I started inviting people. And then with April, like, I don't know if I would have brought it to the world and yet, it's been so powerful for the people that are using it. And that's, that's thanks to April, I have the Marco Polo where she was like, Oh, we're gonna do this. And I love that because I was just like, if I came on too strong, like it's okay. I'm like, No, that was exactly perfect. So yeah, it's really good. Wonderful.

C Christina Jenkins 19:59

L Leslie Tagorda 20:42

Well, can you share with us like when you know, when somebody gets one of these books and their digital downloads, right? So you can get them? And you can, they're designed so wonderfully, so that you can fold them up and print them out? Can you tell like, I have a copy in my hands? But can you tell us like all of the wonderful things that are that are like embedded in this energetically and all of the good things? Yeah, basically.

A April Millar 21:06

Yes, we I we'd love to. Okay, so we we as you get into it. So we give you some information about like what this moon is bringing up. And and then we get into like, specific, really like thoughtful introspective questions that you can, like, assess it for yourself. And then we have some like Moon magic Moon magic page, where we delve into kind of the characteristics of this type of moon, but then also like, maybe some shadow aspects. So some light and shadow, which is really nice. We have a whole page of like, where are you now what is happening in your life right now. So because because we and we continue to learn as well. And we're learning all of like, the moon cycles. And so you want to keep these. So then, you know, in within six months, you can look back and see what's what was happening six months ago and kind of see how that has played out over the last six months. And so yeah, we have Where are you now because we want you to put in what's happening in your life. We have a card spread. And we actually are opening up the like a membership and it's not a membership. It's like the it's like a subscription login. Yeah, like well, it is the subscription, but it's like a login. So that you can get the you can download this but then also if you want any additional tidbits so I will be putting like, where we have the spread but I'm I will be pulling cards for as well. So if you if you don't necessarily have cards or don't use cards, but wants some more like direction from the cards, you can get in there and see like information in there, we will put like the crystals like pictures of what the crystals look like so because I know I have a lot of crystals and some I'm like I don't know what this one is anymore. So that have like information there. But we have the crystals that are really great with this with whatever specific moon it is the herbs that are really great. Christina always puts with the herbs like a really great tea that you can use. So if you're a tea drinker, you can gather those teas and make the teas as you do your your ritual. And then there's always like a couple of activities that are like manifesting activities or or like this one for Virgo is the sweeping ritual. Yeah. Right. So that is that's like super going to be super helpful and harnessing that energy of that moon. And then we have fun facts because we can't help ourselves and I got to bring out your Leo rising.

A April Millar 23:58

Yes. And then for any anybody who is really loving, like learning more about astrology, just like tidbit information we have for luminary learners we have what is happening exactly in the sky right now. And why is it why it's helpful to know what's important about it. There's even a couple questions on there that will help you understand even a little bit more. And then this last page is the page of like, where you can put in your statement, depending on if it's the new moon or full moon as far as like I honor myself by living in this wholeness. So this is for the Virgo New Moon or home that full moon living in wholeness and alignment with my values, my top three values and then you write down your top three values. And then what you want to release and then you can you can rip out this page and burn it. So Ooh.

L Leslie Tagorda 24:54

I love that. I love how you're working with the elements and love working with the zodiac. than the archetypes and bringing in all of these different healing modalities into like, I guess your like your soul embodiment? Really, it is in like April said, it really does feel like a very intuitive just, you know when we get in and we start creating this, it really be it has it has gone from, you know, a long time ago me scrolling Instagram and finding other people's questions and I'm like, Oh, I could use that when others a good one, too. What is the universe wanting to say through us and then to the people that are going to be receiving this, like it has really become such a spiritual, intuitive practice for us.

C Christina Jenkins 25:09

L Leslie Tagorda 25:44

Oh, my goodness, if you have an idea how much joy this brings me. So I one of the things that Oh, my goodness, if you have no idea how much joy this brings me. So I one of the things that we were talking about. So both April and Christina are both still working with me in Star powered circle. And we had an office hours yesterday, where we started talking about the chart of the business. Yes. Right. And so you too, had created a chart of the business for work with the moon. Can you tell us a little bit how you decided on the birth? The first breadth of your work together? Yeah, do you want to,

C Christina Jenkins 26:27

I'd be glad to so we kind of played around with it all last fall. And, you know, we're just sending it out for, you know, just to all of our subscribers or not like to the people on our list, just here, take this. And then in January, lovely April, she's like, okay, like, let's get serious about this. And I'm like, Oh, we are kind of sit, we are serious about this, just like, Nope, we're gonna do this. And this, you know, and so we, I can't believe that work with the moon.com was available. But we were just sitting right here in my office, we looked it up. And so we decided that that was the birth date for our business, because that's when we were like, okay, the website and run for this, we're gonna go for it. We're going to make this a business. Yeah, take it from Play time to actually turning it into something structured. And so that's how we decided on the birth time for our business Church, the practice of the domain. Love that. So what the one of the questions when I asked, I was like, Well, how did you decide the birth time? Because I know, in my practice, I don't actually often work with business charts. Because my question is, well, when did the business start? When did it start? The first time you made money? Did it start when you did the LLC? Did it start? When you got the domain? Did it start the first time you sent a worksheet to your list? Right? There's so many different initiation points, and there's not a right or wrong answer. Like that's that there's that's just the facts. Any, any astrologer who's gonna say like, this is the way I'm always like, Huh? Huh. And so I'm curious as you looked at this beautiful chart, so this was on January third. And we have a Capricorn sun, we have Aquarius rising. And we have where's that moon? Right there in Gemini at the base of the chart? And I'm curious to what do you guys feel from this the work with the moon as the entity of it's the soul of this, like, what did you glean from looking at the chart.

A April Millar 27:10

C Christina Jenkins 27:14

C Christina Jenkins 28:42

So when I first looked at it, of course, the first thing I looked at was the sun, right there in Capricorn. So I was like, Oh, that's fantastic. The sun is there. And Capricorn is in the 11th house. So I really like that for the type of business that we were doing. And my midheaven is Capricorn. So this felt really aligned for me.

April Millar 29:06

Yeah, and I, I actually really liked that there was the majority of the planets under the horizon, because it felt like okay, this is internal work, this is work that everybody's going to be doing for themselves and to hopefully like progress and help themselves. So and very individual based so even though we're offering this it is like the questions are open ended, you can answer in any any capacity. So and I actually really loved that the moon is right next to the ice. So it right there in the in the fourth house where it's like, this is a comfortable place like like because it's a ritual and so it kind of feels like a place that you'd want to go. I feel comfortable feel at home and and move through it and that kind of space. So and then I love the The Ascendant being an Aquarius. I really like Aquarius people generally I've got a lot of Gemini energy. Yes, I love you. And I just like the intellectual side. And that's part of why for me this is so amazing is because I really do get in my head a lot with my air energy that I have in my chart. And so that that felt comfortable. And I just the the mix of what we've got in these, this is a spiritual practice. But for me looking at the chart, it brought it down to earth with that sun in Capricorn, but kept it intellectual because that intellectual connection is so incredibly important to me, like my Venus is in Gemini so like that connection point for intellect is very important. So I didn't when we looked at this chart, honestly, I was like, oh, yeah, great chart here. Like the Aquarius rising especially because I remember in one of the first classes I took with you, you described Aquarius as the the like resurgence of ancient tools are like, what it's like to make something new again. Yeah, technology, ancient technologies.

Leslie Tagorda 31:13

April Millar 31:19

But like, yes, so they're so good with technology and, and all of that, but then also kind of bringing back ancient tools and, and that's what this feels like. It feels like, Okay, let's get back to our natural rhythms. Let's get back to the cyclical living. Let's get back to ourselves. And that's what that Aquarius rising feels like.

L

Leslie Tagorda 31:40

I love I love how you're interpreting the chart and just seeing all the beautiful things in it. When

I look at this chart with that Capricorn sun in the 11th house, Aquarius rising with the primary ruler Saturn, right on the ascendant, and the other, the modern ruler Uranus in the third house, this feels like it's an of course, Mars and Mars and the Moon being right at the icy. It's like you're bringing up all of this ancestral wisdom as a tool for self discovery and change your gift with words?

A April Millar 32:18

C Christina Jenkins 32:21
I was like, Can we take that and use that as our tagline?

L Leslie Tagorda 32:25
Always the words that come through, and we're doing readings, you know, this, this is these are your words. So yes, please. It's so beautiful. And then on top of that, when we put this back onto Christina's chart, right, this the Capricorn Sun then aligns with all of in the ninth house.

C Christina Jenkins 32:43
Oh, wow.

L Leslie Tagorda 32:46
Purpose, the big why it's so close to, you know, April, your Mars and Neptune devotion. So close to Christina's just expansion, like systems expansion. It's like, so beautiful.

C Christina Jenkins 33:04
That's beautiful. I love that. Thank you.

Welcome. I'm going one more thing, one more thing that Saturn and rising is right on Christina's 11th house. So this really has just so much potential for a lot of social impact. And really, I can see it just like growing through your friends growing through the friends of your friends, like there's just like this, this pathway that it's taking.

A April Millar 33:28
I love that so much. And feeling that actually. And I mean, we did see that Saturn, the ruler of the chart is not is unexpected. And so we're like, okay, that just means just effort, it'll probably just put some effort in there.

L Leslie Tagorda 33:45

But always there's always effort, but then the second day ruler Uranus next to the North Node and training the sun it's like there's just like this so much opportunity that is just there fully supporting you.

A April Millar 33:58

I love that. Thank you to hear.

C Christina Jenkins 34:01

Thank you very, very much. Yeah, is this really just we pulled the chart in February and it just it felt really confirming and I appreciate your words in just confirming it even more for us because it does feel like like Gabriel said a soul contract and in a very good way and there's no bad charts like I get that but this just felt like a really aligned like a path like like our next step in our past kind of thing.

L Leslie Tagorda 34:34

This is definitely like a chart of like the other thing that you were mentioning right in April that a lot of the planets are below the horizon also, all the planets are to the to the eastern hemisphere. And so when we have all of those planets on that hemisphere, it's like all about like, that's why I said self discovery because this is all about self.

A April Millar 34:55

Yes. Wow. It is and it is that So the best part is, it totally is. And the cool thing is as Christina, I used to do these, well, we still do them together, but like invite people and there would be, you know, four or five of us around a table. And we're all doing our own thing. It's we're together but doing our own thing. So that's what it is that so cool.

L Leslie Tagorda 35:19

Oh my gosh, I hope that we can all do this together in person one day soon, like before the end of 2023

C Christina Jenkins 35:25

Let's set that intention. Let's let's absolutely do it. Because that is one of the things that we do want to do is just bring more people in for an actual can community ritual together.

L Leslie Tagorda 35:42

Well, is there anything else that you would love to share about this beautiful work? Work with the moon head on over to work with the moon.com? And what remind me of your Instagram again?

A April Millar 35:54

It's just worked with the moon where the moon I know it, like can you believe everything was available? So if that's when you're like, oh, this that have been waiting for us?

C Christina Jenkins 36:03

Yes. And Tik Tok also worked with the moon.

L Leslie Tagorda 36:07

Beautiful and like, oh my gosh, Christina, you have like April lighter side. And she was just like a social media whiz. She's like, oh, about that. But, uh, but you know, my chart. It's I love like, honestly, when you told me I think it was a year ago when you're like, ah, your chart, you need to just like show up and shine. I'm like, permission.

A April Millar 36:15

L Leslie Tagorda 36:32

Yes, with that 10th House son, for sure. Thank you so much for sharing your journey with us. And I hope everyone is really inspired to work with the moon. Head on over to work with the moon.com and find out what these powerful workbooks are all about for your own tool of self discovery.

C Christina Jenkins 36:56

And thank you, Leslie, for the community that you provide this would not have happened without your beautiful communities. So you are a part of this. And I'm just so grateful for you without your beautiful communities. So you are a part of this. And I'm just so grateful for you.

Thank you, Christina.

Thank you, April. i My heart is singing. Absolutely. All right, my friends. So we have a new moon Aries New Moon at zero degrees who I can't say that I'm so looking forward to working with that and start powered circle. We'll be we'll be revealing all of that. So thank you so much Christina and April for sharing your beautiful magic.

C Christina Jenkins 37:34

Thank you Leslie.
