Hello luminary we have a Taurus New Moon coming up on Friday May 19 8:53am, Pacific 11:53am Eastern. And you know what you might have been hearing from other astrologers that this Taurus New Moon is all wonderful and abundance and luck and joy and Monday, money and prosperity. Well, yes, and you're gonna have to prove it. I'll tell you why. So listen up. Welcome to stop hard astrology for changemakers I have Leslie Tagorda. Your guide, a Hawaii born Filipina Jewish astrologer who loves navigating visionaries like you to the spiritual journey of your work so that you can be inspired to lead by your chart and become the luminary leader. You are born to be. Everybody, Leslie Tagorda here. Welcome. Welcome to another episode of Star powered, where today I'll be talking all about the New Moon in Taurus. Well, it's not just me because this is a special and repurposed episode, a conversation with me and the magical Natalie Miller, Natalie Miller and I have been known to collaborate before we have written a book on a new moon rituals for leadership and change makers back in 2022. And Natalie is just like the most amazing Pisces rising coach who has a fabulous podcast time witchery if you don't already know time witchery this is definitely one that you will want to follow and subscribe to she is absolutely amazing. Well, Natalie invited me to speak about the New Moon in Taurus and then the following Full Moon in in Scorpio that we have in a couple of weeks afterwards. But we are repurposing this conversation. So she's letting me borrow our conversation from time witchery to share here with you. So I'll be sharing this episode and after the episode, I want to share a little bit of house personalization. So how can you personalize this new moon according to which house is being activated? I'll be sharing a little bit of those personalizations as well as answering a couple of questions that y'all had in my free Facebook group called Star powered podcasts. So if you want to have a conversation with me, if you have questions, head on over to my free Facebook group, where you know, go ahead and ask your questions. I love answering listener questions. And that is one of the easiest ways to get in touch with me. Lastly, what I wanted to say about this new moon, Natalie and I go through so much about just the astrology of this new moon we have a gigantic Taurus stellium with Jupiter, North Node mercury, Uranus, the sun and the moon all in Taurus. And then with Jupiter who had just entered Taurus still at that zero degree mark, making a T square with Pluto and Mars. Now, I absolutely love T squares. And I've already been seeing this show up in my client meetings and client charts. And if you happen to be a Beholder of a T square in your natal chart, a T square is where there's two planets that are opposing each other, and then another planet forming a square to those opposing planets. And it looks just like a 90 degree triangle a half of a square that's why it's called a T square. Now, these T squares have tremendous amounts of energy, they take action, and this kind of new moon, whatever your intention is, if it's all about money, or prosperity or wealth or values. This T square is really asking you to prove what you are worthy of. So when we're talking about tourists, we're definitely talking about money. But more than money, we're talking about values. What do you value? What will you measure? What will you create capacity to cultivate and receive more of sometimes it's not just about the money, it's really also cultivating the things that you value, whether this is time or freedom, or maybe these are vacations or buying a home, whatever this is all of those values, your personal values, your social values. This is what Taurus New Moon is really asking you to get to the root of to create more of and this T square with this Taurus Moon isn't just about waiting and wishing for your intentions to happen, but to prove your worth, that you are worthy and deserving of what you ask for. Okay, to prove your worth, it means to take dedicated action towards what you want. Okay, so that's really what I really want you to know about this upcoming new moon. But for now, I want you to luxuriate in this conversation with me and the one and only Natalie Miller. And then stay on and listen, I'll be sharing some new moon personalization. So you can look through your houses, find out where that 20 degrees of Taurus is in your house in your natal chart, so you know how to direct your new moon intention. And then I'll share a little bit more. So questions and answers from community members. All right, here's the conversation with me and Natalie.

N

Natalie Miller 05:42

Hello, my love. Here comes another new moon, we have another new moon. Wow, it just turns out we keep going round and round and round. And I'm so excited to have on today. A dear friend.

Leslie Tagorda 06:04

Hi, Natalie, thank you for having me here to talk about the things that we love to talk about most astrology,

N

Natalie Miller 06:10

the things we love to talk about. Metis Yes, Leslie and I love talking about astrology so much. We wrote a book together about it. It was a very 2022 book because it was about those lunar cycles although I will say Leslie there is a lot of timeless shit in there. There is some timeless wisdom and there is so much good stuff. Maybe one day we'll come back to it when the time is right.

Leslie Tagorda 06:32

N

Natalie Miller 06:36

Maybe one day we will come back when the time is right. So Leslie is a genius Leslie is an maybe one day we will come back when the time is right. So Leslie is a genius Leslie is an astrologer Leslie is a multi racial completely committed to making this world better. brand strategist. Leslie is a mama and a musician and this delightful multiplex being and I'm so grateful to call you my friend. What did I miss?

Oh my goodness, I feel like you totally saw like the prism of all of my facets.

N Natalie Miller 07:14

It's my specialty. So Leslie, we are here to talk about this next lunar cycle. We're here to talk about the New Moon in Taurus that is May 19 however, we will still be in the Eclipse see window and so I'm just kind of curious to start there. Like what has this eclipse season been about for you?

L Leslie Tagorda 07:41

This past the eclipse season I feel like everything has just been like building and building and building for us and you know, I don't know if some of your listeners or clients tend to get freaked out by like, Oh no, the sky is falling. We're gonna have another Eclipse. Oh no, Pluto is retrograde. Oh no Mercury is retrograde. And I feel like all of these eclipses like if we go back to the first eclipse the New Moon Solar Eclipse at Aries have 29 degrees. Then we have mercury retrograde then we have this Scorpio Eclipse like all of these were taking us on this like roller coaster ride through making a bet on ourselves on our best selves. coming face to face with scarcity mindset that Scorpio a Eclipse like that total like spiritual detox like the I'm going to be potty mouth a little bit but like feeling that liberation in your body after you've taken like the biggest, most massive dump best feeling? Best feeling like ah, I didn't need any of that.

N Natalie Miller 08:44

L Leslie Tagorda 08:52

Did not need any of that fear, shame, guilt. So like those like three events that are leading us up now to this newest lunation of this Taurus New Moon. Like Taurus wants to hoard stuff, right? Can we swear on this podcast? Oh, yeah. Okay. You know, like that, that Taurus energy like left unchecked is like going to like hoard shit. It's going to over buy courses, cheap trinkets, luxury bags,

N Natalie Miller 09:23

over at h&m clubs.

L Leslie Tagorda 09:26

fast fashion. Right? And so we needed all of that purging because we needed to make space for what we truly want, so that we can feel full and satisfied. And this is something that I really like learned from you and Natalie that idea of plentitude satisfaction. So now we get this New Moon in Taurus tomorrow as we time travel to May 19. And we get to say, what do I want? What what do I want, and we have Jupiter arriving in Taurus it's like the New Moon is happening and Jupiter like knocks on the door is like Hello, I'm here. What do you make of that? Let's go big. At the time of this Taurus New Moon, we have Jupiter, North Node mercury, Uranus, and both luminaries all in Taurus. So it was like a Taurus party. What do you want that makes you feel so good in your body? What feels good on your body? What is like that peacefulness? Like what do you want to eat? What you want to put in your body on your body around your body? Totally. And then Jupiter is like, go big.

N Natalie Miller 09:59

L Leslie Tagorda 10:16

N Natalie Miller 10:49

Yeah, take up space. Totally. And also we have Venus in cancer. So Venus is ruling the moon Venus is in cancer and Venus is like, No really, baby. You deserve it. You need it like nurture love. That's what I'm getting. Do you agree with this vibe?

L Leslie Tagorda 11:09

Totally. Because if you think of like cancer, right, the Divine Mother and Venus in cancer, she is inviting you into her opulent home. And you know, putting the fuzziest warmest slippers on your feet and sitting you around her kitchen table so that we can connect and welcome you. What is like Venus in Cancer gonna feed you? It's not going to be like a greedy template. It'd be like want some ice cream?

N Natalie Miller 11:39

Right? Totally. Totally. Yeah, I have actually have a great friend who does Taurus and she has a ton of Taurus a ton of cancer in her heart. And her home is just, I can't even describe it's like every dish is so pleasant. Like every mug is a joy to hold every window has like a little plant and then a little rose quartz. It's so beautiful and and opulent, but not in a Trumpy way. Right? Like, right? It's like deeply gorgeous, deeply sweet and like the earth comforting.

L Leslie Tagorda 12:29

I can't imagine that her house also smells like just like fresh Peony is like the slightest waft of Peony is from like a very expensive like room freshener. Yeah, the cheap room freshener. Like the stuff that comes from Europe.

N Natalie Miller 12:44

It's like her towels are really fluffy. Medea. Christina, if you're listening to this, you already know this. But her towels are fluffy and you smell them and you're like, What possible detergent makes it smell like ever so slightly perfumed, but also like it's been dried in the sun.

L Leslie Tagorda 13:05

We go to her house.

N Natalie Miller 13:07

We all want to go to her house. We all want to get her house. Okay, so that was a nice luxurious sidebar of the yumminess of this lunation all this Taurus energy ruled by Venus in cancer. I love this. Like what does your body want in it around it like to be fed to be immersed in? That's all gorgeous.

L Leslie Tagorda 13:31

And what you said like you deserve this.

N Natalie Miller 13:33

Yeah, like this nurturing is your birthright as a human. But a lot of time there in the yumminess because also, but the universe is asking you to stand up for what you deserve. It's not going to just be like handed to you on a silver spoon. This is literally you making a choice to speak up for what you want to empower yourself. And at the utmost have the gratitude and belief and faith in yourself that you deserve this. Yeah, especially because right especially because some of the bad boys some of the some of the tough ones. You're like Alexa, he or she knows I'm like I'm like, Let me Let me stretch. Let me stretch some of the tough ones, namely, our friends Mars and Pluto are also having a stretch some of the tough ones, namely, our friends Mars, and Pluto are also having a conversation in this lunation

N Natalie Miller 14:21

- L Leslie Tagorda 14:48
they're facing off with each other. Now, I feel like both you and I like to play with sharp objects.
- N Natalie Miller 15:00
So to say, because we trust ourselves, right? Like dear Podcast Producer, there's our audio gram, right? You and I both like to play with sharp objects. We do indeed. Right? Because we like to cut away shit that's not working. Yeah. And if your knife isn't sharp, it's not going to cut. Totally 100% If you want to cook, you're gonna need a knife. And it's gonna need to be sharp. A good knife. Yeah. A good knife. Yeah. All right, so we have some, we have some knives, we have some knives. And so astrologically speaking for those Astro techies out there, we have what is called a T square. And you can visualize a T square as like a right angle square, like a half of a right angle triangle, half of a square.
- L Leslie Tagorda 15:32
- N Natalie Miller 15:49
You know how I like to think about it, too. I love to think about squares and T squares as like a four way intersection, where it's like three cars are pulling up at the exact same time. And they have to spend a minute going, okay, who's who's going away? It's like they all have to kind of look at each other. And these three planets it just turns out like aren't really the ones to kind of sit back and be like, Oh, no, go ahead. Maybe Jupiter but not even really right. Go ahead No, like these guys are all like really wanting to go so what do you make of the opposite the kind of really the part of the opposition that is Mars at the an erratic degree of cancer the very last 29 degrees of cancer opposing our still brand new in Aquarius. Pluto. Now what do you make of that?
- L Leslie Tagorda 16:47
This is fight energy. This is face off energy. We don't have to be afraid if we understand what they're fighting for. Right. And ultimately, to me at least when I see opposition's and these squares, you know Natalie, or even just in a chart, there's so much energy there's so much activation and it pushes us like we need these squares these opposition's to have the momentum to drive things forward. And a square is always asking you to make a choice. I love that. Like I don't believe it's integration. It's a choice. Decision.
- N Natalie Miller 17:27

It's a choice. It's a decision. It is definitely the like to continue the potty mouth shit or get off the pot twice. Don't be sitting there reading your phone.

L Leslie Tagorda 17:35

N Natalie Miller 17:42

Like, are we doing this or not? And you know, I just wrote this question, Leslie, I hope you'll go with it too. But with with Jupiter in the mix, right? Because we have Mars and Pluto across from one another and then we have Jupiter in that kind of third position. So at 90 degrees from both of those planets, I think Jupiter who's an idealist, Jupiter who's here for growth and learning and wisdom and expansion in that way. I think Jupiter is like so what is worth fighting for?

L Leslie Tagorda 18:20

Yeah. What do you believe in?

N Natalie Miller 18:22

What do you believe in?

L Leslie Tagorda 18:23

Jupiter is the is holding down court here. When we have this kind of T square in the sky, the planet that is holding court as kind of like the pivot the center of this opposition is the one that gets to make the judgment. And Jupiter is about judgment.

N Natalie Miller 18:46

Yeah. And it's funny on the one hand, Yay, it's Jupiter. Jupiter's a benefic. Jupiter ultimately is like look, these choices these fights they can be for the highest good. And on the other hand, Jupiter is a massive gaseous being. Kind of overdo it.

L Leslie Tagorda 19:08

Jupiter is simply going to overdo, exaggerate, expand, whatever you believe. So if you're already in that place of fear, and disempowerment, or powering over and controlling all of those that face off energy between Mars and Pluto, then guess what? Your dogma your judgment, your limiting beliefs. Jupiter is gonna flame those fires and add gasoline to it. Yeah,

N Natalie Miller 19:36
super important also because Neptune is trying Mars. And Neptune just has this way right? Neptune is I always think like, if you all haven't seen we'll put this in the show notes. Stevie Nicks the video for rooms on fire. Have you seen this video? I need to look Get up.

L Leslie Tagorda 19:59

N Natalie Miller 20:01
Oh my gosh. Let me just like here's the choice lyric from the song. Long nets of white cloud my memories. It's just like, it's the whole video is very like,

L Leslie Tagorda 20:13
I didn't like this on fire.

N Natalie Miller 20:15
The rooms are on fire but like it's also dreamy Yeah. What does that say to you that there's a Neptune trine to Mars.

L Leslie Tagorda 20:28
I absolutely love Neptune trine to Mars like it's one of my favorite aspects like when I see it in people, Natalie, when I see it in the sky, because to me, this is devotion through action.

N Natalie Miller 20:41
Hmm. That is a beautiful way to think about it.

L Leslie Tagorda 20:47
And so I haven't seen this video of this this fire but I can imagine Stevie Nicks dancing through the fire. And as she moves her body, it's a devotion to whatever God she's devoting herself to at that moment. Yeah. And so you know, thinking about all of that Torian earthbound energy. And the way you know Mars and Pluto asking us to take action and stand up for what we believe for the Neptune is dance, stomp your feet chant, sing in devotion for what you want.

N

Natalie Miller 21:26

Yeah. Oh my gosh, if and if there's any other big rooms of fire people out there. There's this other line in the song that is so this is the first time I've ever noticed that this is so Neptunian. But she says there is a magic all around you. There is magic all around you. And I think Neptune also does tap into that a little bit. It's just like, did we'll forget about the super powers available to us. Did we forget about our creativity? Did we forget about our spirituality? Did we forget about the larger than life? Like out there? Yes. power that we have.

L

Leslie Tagorda 22:07

Yeah, that that is our source that we are that is surrounds us to simply waiting for us to ask.

N

Natalie Miller 22:14

It's just there. It's just there. I love it. So what else do you notice if anything about this lunation that feels important.

Leslie Tagorda 22:26

So Pluto to me is just over the course of may and into June. Anytime a planet enters any of our fixed signs. Leo Aquarius, Scorpio and Taurus or anytime a planet enters an Air sign Libra Aquarius, Gemini, that Pluto hanging out right there is gonna say die and be reborn. Like here we are. So you know Pluto holding court at that very beginning degree. And that Torian energy getting ready to enter Gemini feels like just this big revelation and understanding.

N

Natalie Miller 23:13

You know the word that was coming to me and for me, this has actually also been the word of this eclipse season is regeneration. Uranus now is in the middle of Taurus and Uranus has been there for a while. Still going to be there for a while. But these eclipses finally are like, can we get this Uranian thing kind of like there's a little spark there's we're lighting a little bit of a little bit of fire. We're lighting up that Uranus and Taurus and not incidentally like the financial collapse all everyone was practicing. Oh, maybe that's not gonna happen actually. You know, not to be doom and gloom. But that was kind of the thought when you're in US came into Taurus people were like, let's really look at like food systems. Let's look at the financial systems. Like let's look at the ways we support ourselves in this world. And of course, we've seen tons of challenges on that front since Uranus has been here, but you actually taught me this. Leslie, it's like when we think about revolution. It's not necessarily only a going forward, it can also be a going back. Right? So Regeneration can be tapping back into what we want. It can be tapping back into our purpose. It can be tapping back into who we were before that job before that relationship before that thing happened. So that regeneration and remembering that like as we go around and around on every single one of us, we are programmed to regenerate like that is in our cellular structure. Yes. And it's an in our ability to be on this planet to in a regenerative way.

L Leslie Tagorda 25:17

You know, I think that's one of the reasons why I love astrology so much, is because it shows us all of those different cycles, right, our annual cycles of the sun, our daily cycles with the moon, our life cycles with the outer planets, like all of these reminds us that even when we go back, we're coming back in a different way we can still update and thinking about like Uranus and Taurus from a global perspective, not just finances, but also about repatriating land and caring for the land and restoring old ways of like land conservation, like indigenous knowledge and wisdom. And it also is about resources as commerce. And I think, at least as I see it going forward, over the next few years, we're going to be seeing a commerce really changing a lot to like energy, like just like the power that powers us.

N Natalie Miller 26:16

Power that powers us. I mean, we've noticed if you're following what's the Russia's war on Ukraine, energy is a huge part of that.

L Leslie Tagorda 26:28

And like the domestic attacks on like energy grids and things like that, we don't need to go like deep dark gloom and doom. But these are some of the things that as like Uranus is finishing up in Taurus as Pluto vacillates between Capricorn and aquarius over the next couple of years. We're gonna see more and more of that, but we need to go through this. Yes, totally. So as above, so below as on the planet. So in you. I think for me, the question here is like, what do you want to revive and regenerate? Like, it's time? You know, it's time it's been time? Yes, it's been time. So what is that for you? And then what's the first step? What's the first step toward that?

N Natalie Miller 26:49

L Leslie Tagorda 27:17

Well, if we ask the first step with this Taurus, new moon it starting with your body.

N Natalie Miller 27:22

Yeah. See how our questions went in a nice little circle there.

L Leslie Tagorda 27:26

Thank you for bringing us back, Natalie.

N

Natalie Miller 27:29

I love it. I love it so much. Okay, so this is actually there's a ton of power in it. But I love this. I love this new moon.

L

Leslie Tagorda 27:37

Oh, me too. Yeah, it feels wonderful. It feels like it doesn't have to be scary with that Mars and Pluto. Like, of course, as we get up to this new moon in the following days, like when you're out on the road, be aware. Because there's going to be rageaholic that are triggered by this and that is not you. So just be conscious aware. Keep your eyes open.

N

Natalie Miller 28:03

And honestly, stay off. Like, like, stay home. Make yourself just the fluffiest little nest with the nicest mugs and, and buy some fancy detergent to wash your towels and like, yeah, like that's okay. And she's gonna that's okay. Yeah. And she's good. I mean, really, like what I just said is kind of like an answer to any moment. So just bookmark that. Yes.

Oh, my goodness. Wasn't that conversation just absolutely amazing. It is so fun to talk with astrology with a soul sister like Natalie. You know, both she and I absolutely love leadership and personal development. We love talking about businesses and we love talking with change makers. So just to be able to have a conversation around astrology, and business and leadership and changemaking it just absolutely lights me up. So I hope you enjoyed that conversation as much as I had having it with Natalie. So let's talk a little bit now about personalizing this new moon intention. So whatever you're looking to create more of, in terms of your Taurus themes and values and abundance and profitability and measuring what is important to you. Let's take a look in your life and your business by house on where you need to bring in a fresh intention. Remember that the house that contains the degree of the New Moon is the house that is being activated the house that is asking for fresh clarification. And if you use new moon intentions and rituals throughout the year, just like a holistic intention setting you will be able to create 12 intentions around each aspect of your life and your work? So let's take a look. So remember with this Taurus New Moon, you have to prove your value by committing to your own truth. What I mean by your own truth is, what do you value and how will you remain loyal to what you value not just by wishing for it, but by committing to it, taking action on it, and cultivating what you already desire in your life so you can even receive more of that. Remember, a value is not only just monetary, doesn't only just have monetary significance, like capitalism would like you to believe value is something that holds importance or worth to you. And this new moon is really going to help you prove your worth by justifying your behaviors and values by making sure you are doing everything that you can to and measuring what you're supposed to measure. So for your new moon, I invite you to plant the seeds to manifest abundant value and sustainable growth in your life, your brand, your business and your leadership. Okay, so let's go through these house activations. Remembering that this comes always back to abundant value and sustainable growth, especially with Jupiter, spending its time in Taurus over the next 12 months. So if you're an Aries rising or happen to have 28 degrees of Taurus in your second house, you are going to be planting the seeds in your works, results and promises of transformation that elevate your value. If you're a Taurus, or happen to have that Taurus of 28 degrees in the first house, you are planting the seeds in your works luscious brand identity and prosperity building leadership. That's right how you do what you do. If you're a Gemini or have that 28 degrees of Taurus in the 12th house. This is your time to plant those seeds in your works charitable opportunities so that others may also feel that feel stable and secure. If you're a Cancer or have this 28 degrees of Taurus in your 11th house, here you're planting the seeds for your soul communities, and social impact built around equitable, sustainable and environmental values. Thank you Taurus. All right. So if you are a Leo or have your 28 degrees of Taurus in your 10th house, you are planting the seeds for an abundant value and sustainable growth in your works. Recognized expertise and ultimate mission so that you can deliver feel good wealth, luxury and beauty. If you're a Virgo or have that 28 degrees of Taurus in your ninth house, it's time to plant your seeds with a fresh intention to manifest abundant value and sustainable growth in your work purpose, add philosophy to expand sustainable holistic growth and wealth through health. That's it. That's right, it health. Prosperity, wealth is health health is wealth. All right. If you're a Libra or have 28 degrees of Taurus in that eighth house, you are planting your seeds for a fresh, abundant intention for sustainable growth in your works, sustainable investment strategy, and leveraging of other people's resources for shared prosperity. I love this idea of long term investments, invest in others or get people to invest in you. If you have Scorpio or a seventh house activation, if 28 degrees of Taurus is in your seventh house, you're planting the seeds to manifest abundant value and sustainable growth and your works loyal partnerships and collaborations built with trusting long term Win Win relationships. Yes, I absolutely love that for you. Now, if you're a Sagittarius or you have that Taurus 20 degrees in the sixth house, you're planting the seeds for Regenerative day to day rituals, operations routines, automations. Everything that you can do to streamline your work that enables profitability and ease. Now again unprofitability isn't just about money, you're measuring and increasing whatever you value. All right, if you're a Capricorn and you or you have that 20 degrees of Taurus in your fifth house, this intention is about planting the seeds for fun, tactile and creative passion projects that balance your play your hard play with your hard work. Balance your play hard with your work hard, right? I know you Capricorn you know how to work hard, but you're not adding any value or abundance if you're not also playing and having fun hard. All right, if you're Aquarius, or you have that 28 degrees of Taurus activating your fourth house, you are planting the seeds for abundant value and sustainable growth. In those private inner areas your home base, your inner circle your private communities, so that you can grow and build intergenerational secure, peaceful abundance. Lastly, if you're a Pisces, or you have that third house being activated by 28 degrees of Taurus, here you are planting the seeds of a fresh intention to manifest abundant value and sustainable growth in your leadership's twice a messaging that expresses and teaches and shares your most peaceful, plentiful and steady outcomes. It's not so beautiful, there is so much beauty in this Taurus New Moon with that Taurus stellium. And that somewhat prickly T square that is simply asking you to prove your worth. Remember, profitability isn't just about money, but it's about increasing. What is valuable to you. All right, so let's take a look. There's just a couple of questions because I posted this I posted the post in Facebook asking about questions pretty late in the day. So I know a lot of people didn't see it. But we have two questions. One from Michelle price, and one are from Monica McNeil, Bodie. So Michelle asks, how can we think about our own moon sign as it's in relationship with the new moon? And you know, I found that question really fascinating, because I forget to really apply that our own moon sign when we're relating to that new moon, I'm so curious about the new moon and how it's activating and showing up in different areas in our chart by the House side, but I forget to really talk about our moon sign. But remember our moon sign your natal moon sign, whether you have a Leo moon, or an Aries moon, or a Cancer moon or Pisces moon, whatever your moon sign is, your moon sign is your gatekeeper to aligned action. Because your moon sign shows you what you need to accept within yourself and to create emotional security. If your moon sign does not feel secure, you're going to be like, you're going to be taking action on things based on fear, or you're not going to be taking action at all. So your moon sign always has a role in everything that you do, from new moon intentions to, to whatever you're doing in your life and work. So always coming to that root of your moon sign in my in my paid community, Star powered circle, we've been really working with our moon signs, and cultivating a checklist, an emotional safety checklist checklist based on our own moon signs, so that we can ensure that all of these things, you know, sometimes there's four things sometimes there's eight things depending on how complicated your moon sign is about what needs to be satisfied, needs to be satisfied in order for you to take action. So if you're a fire, Moon, being having that kind of passion, and ability to go after what you want and spark things, and independence is going to be something that's at the basis of whether you feel emotionally safe. If you're a water sign, having boundaries and having emotional safety. Being able to express your emotions are some of your needs that are going to allow you to take action on your intentions. If you're an earth sign, being pragmatic and practical, making sure that you're building something that lasts is going to have an impact for you on creating your intentions. And lastly, if you're an Air sign, being heard and understood and being able to share your thoughts and your ideas are going to be paramount, paramount for you to take aligned action and prove your worth in this upcoming New Moon. All right, thanks, Michelle, for, for asking that question in that way just kinds of turns things a different perspective on things. And then Monica asks, I read somewhere that there are multiple planets in Taurus with this new moon. How does this affect our understanding of how this will impact us individually in general, and specifically in respect to the planets involved? Oh, yes, that's a deep question. And so we have this a Taurus stellium. From from earliest Taurus to late Taurus, we have Jupiter at zero degrees of Taurus, we have the North Node at three degrees of Taurus, we have a Mercury at six degrees of Taurus, we have Uranus at 19 degrees of Taurus, and we have the moon and the sun at 28 degrees of Taurus. So we have planets from the very earliest degrees to the very latest degrees all through Taurus. Jupiter's Jupiter plays a very prominent role in this just simply because it's holding court. And it's balancing out the opposition between Mars and Pluto, which are really asking you to take action on what is going to have the most impact and Jupiter saying, Hey, can we take sustainable growth on this? Do you believe this is going to happen? Are you optimistic and grateful for all of your learning lessons? So Jupiter in Taurus is say, go big, but make sure this is like you know sustainably big and making sure that you can take action and prove your worth. That north node is now asking, Hey, this is our sole potential here. How can you contribute through your own unique values to the collective evolution? I know that's a little bit boob, I totally believe that you completely understand where I'm coming from Monaco. So when we think about that north node and Taurus and that collective potential for all of us, it really has it really comes back to taking care of the money, Mother Earth, environmentally, sustainably, and really being a really good steward to the resources on Mother Earth. And so if we are running our businesses that are not stewarding the resources of Mother Earth in an equitable fashion, then we are not here on contributing to that path of the collective consciousness. Mercury, of course, is saying speak up, use your voice for what is important. Your rawness is saying, make change and liberate yourself from conformity. And then of course, the moon and the sun. This is why we're having our conversation today is saying, What do you want to plant? What has shifted? What do you need to change? What do you need to freshen up in your Torian values and ideals in what you want to grow and create profitability on? Again, reminder, profitability isn't just about money. It's about increasing and growing, what you value and increasing and growing. What you value means that you have to be open and dedicated to cultivating it in your life and in the lives of others, but also cultivating your ability to open your heart and receive. That was good. Thanks, Monica for asking. All right fans,
